

New Gig - Benefit Concert 11th June

Tuesday, 11 May 2010 08:50 - Last Updated Tuesday, 11 May 2010 08:59

A poster for a benefit concert. The background is dark red with a microphone on the right side. The text is in white and yellow. The title 'Hackney Roots Benefit' is at the top in a stylized font. Below it, the purpose of the event is stated. The date and time are 'Friday 11 June 2010, 7.30 - 11.30pm'. The venue is 'Cafe Oto, 22 Ashwin Street, Dalston, London E8 3DL'. The event is described as 'An evening of music, comedy and performance'. A list of performers follows: 'The Electric Landladies - Five decades of music', 'Seb Rochford plus guest - Jazz drummer', 'Loren Rossekew - Singer-songwriter', 'Ivor Dembina - Jewish comedian', and 'The Illegals - Drama piece by Ivo and Fio'. Ticket information is 'Tickets: £9/£6 cone (unemployed, OAP). Doors open at 7.30pm'. At the bottom, it says 'Hackney Refugee and Migrant Support Group (HRMSG) is an independent group campaigning for the welfare of refugees and other migrants in the borough of Hackney. The money raised will go to helping our campaign work.'

Hackney Roots Benefit

A benefit to raise funds for campaigns for refugees and migrants in Hackney

Friday 11 June 2010, 7.30 - 11.30pm
Cafe Oto, 22 Ashwin Street, Dalston, London E8 3DL

An evening of music, comedy and performance

The Electric Landladies - Five decades of music
Seb Rochford plus guest - Jazz drummer
Loren Rossekew - Singer-songwriter
Ivor Dembina - Jewish comedian
The Illegals - Drama piece by Ivo and Fio

Tickets: £9/£6 cone (unemployed, OAP).
Doors open at 7.30pm

Hackney Refugee and Migrant Support Group (HRMSG) is an independent group campaigning for the welfare of refugees and other migrants in the borough of Hackney. The money raised will go to helping our campaign work.